

A CURTAIN CALL.

Favored actors, when they play well their part, get a "curtain call." We make one for everybody, and just at the time when it most counts. "Spring fixtures" include nothing of more importance than

LACE CURTAINS.

In Tambour Curtains our prices are regularly from 10 to 25 per cent. lower than any other house in this market offers. But to take time by the forelock we shall do better than this.

Extra Inducements—Limited.

For three days (only), Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, we shall sell these curtains at 10 per cent. less than our already lowest regular rate. Here is a bargain, indeed! You may see it in the plain figures marked on all these goods.

RINGS

Not the kind everybody is against, but the kind everybody wants. They are, perhaps, the oldest form of jewelry. They are mentioned in Genesis and Exodus. The Babylonians wore them. The Greeks got them from Asia, the Romans got them from the Sabines, the Hottentots generally got them from us, and there is where they have vast advantages over those other folks. Rings of all kinds to be had at

CITY NEWS.

Official lightning is hovering over one of the patrolmen.

The first bare-footed boy of the season has made his appearance.

A citizen's ticket has been placed in the field at Houghville and the township election will occur May 7.

The trustees of Woodruff Place have planted trees along the south and north sides of the suburb on Michigan street and Clifford avenue.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Central Christian Church and Office Building will be entertained this evening at the residence of Mrs. King, 70 English avenue.

Judge Irvin yesterday acquitted Fred Pifer, accused of stealing valuable jewelry from Michael Linker. William Taylor, who was arrested with him, has pleaded guilty.

Charles Jolly, who was shot in the jaw on Delaware street night before last, is pretty badly hurt, but will probably recover. There is still much mystery about the shooting.

The Women's Mission Circle of the First Baptist Church will hold a meeting to-morrow afternoon at Mrs. A. Wagner's residence, 238 Central avenue, at which time Mrs. Henry Coburn will present a paper entitled "Is His Name?"

It is whispered that one of the firemen, incapacitated from duty by injury, and who has received the kindest treatment from the Chief Fire Engineer in consequence, is putting in his leisure hours working against the reelection of the Engineer.

Wednesday morning four boys escaped from the House of Refuge at Plainfield, and last night Captain Thomas and Officer He-Stulise of the Merchants' force ran across them on South New Jersey street. Three of them escaped, but the oldest Charles Bensley, was captured, although he drew a knife and tried to resist.

CALVIN FLETCHER ROOKER.

His Death Occurs This Morning at His Residence, on North Illinois Street.

Ex-Councilman Calvin F. Rooker died this morning at his residence, 778 North Illinois street, after a long illness, which had disabled him for several months and had confined him to his bed for the past three weeks. He leaves a wife and two children—Dr. Herman Rooker, of Silver Brook, Pa., and Mrs. Ed. S. Finkback, of this city. Owing to the difficulty of communicating with Dr. Rooker (there being no telegraphic communication within several miles), the date of the funeral is undetermined, but it probably will be held on Sunday afternoon.

The deceased was aged sixty-three, and he was the son of Isaac S. Rooker, one of the pioneers of Indianapolis (coming here in 1821), and he was named in honor of Calvin Fletcher, one of the honored citizens of this city. An Indianapolis by birth, "Cal" as he was familiarly called, spent the greater portion of his life here, and no resident of the county enjoyed a more general acquaintance. While much of this was due to his genial qualities, still his long service as a deputy in one or the other of the county offices gave him abundant opportunities for making friends. He served two terms as Councilman, the last one expiring with the beginning of the present year. In 1874 he was the nominee of his party for County Clerk, and was defeated with the remainder of his ticket. This was the last of his active participation in our county politics, in which he had figured conspicuously for several years, and he resumed the practice of law, to which he had given some attention in the past. At one time he was associated with Bixby & Norton; still later with A. W. Hatch, and more recently with Judge Robinson, present law clerk of the House of Representatives. After his illness incapacitated him from active work, and Judge Robinson, by reason of his official duties, was compelled to remain in Washington, this partnership was dissolved, save with respect to pending cases, and the business was turned over to S. O. Pickens. Rooker excelled in the preparation of cases, his long service in the County Clerk's office giving him a thorough knowledge of court business. His greatest strength lay in his indefatigable industry, and by this means he accomplished matters that trying to do which men of greater intellect would have made a failure. At one time he was conspicuous in secret society work, belonging to a number of organizations, but of late years he gave his attention principally to the Knights Templars and Scottish Rite, and to the I. O. O. F. It is the understanding that Capital Lodge, I. O. O. F. will have the charge of the funeral.

Mr. Rooker was insured for $2,500 in the Odd Fellows Mutual Aid Association. Several years ago he connected himself with the Central Christian Church, and at the time of his death he was a member of its official board.

Issue Ball Matters.

George Myers last night signed an Indianapolis contract, leaving only two players (Hackett and McNeely) out in the cold, and they can stay out, so far as the local management is concerned. Myers has had a good deal of outdoor practice this spring and says that his hands are now fit to go to work. He is in excellent condition, as he always is.

The Cleveland Club arrived here this morning, preparatory to the opening games of the season this afternoon and to-morrow. In it are three ex-league players, Snyder, Hotaling and Stenenger, and it has five batteries. The battery announcements for this afternoon are Shreve and Buckley for the home team and Gilks and Zimmer for the visiting team. The grand stand and grounds are finished so as to permit the playing. No other city in the country is much better provided for in this respect.

The exhibition games yesterday resulted as follows: Cleveland 13, Toronto 4; Washington 7, Athletic 3; St. Louis 9, Detroit 3.

John Hesley has a sore arm, as he always has in the spring, but he thinks he will get over it soon.

Pittsburgh has sold Barkley to the Kansas City Association Club for $2,000.

Williamson will go back to third base for Chicago this year. VanHatten will play short-stop, and Ryan be made a regular pitcher.

The Harrison-Sullivan suits.

The suits of Thomas Harrison and John E. Sullivan against Attorney General Michener and W. D. Foulke, for $20,000 damages, do not appear to cause the defendants any particular concern. It seems rather strange that out of the many damaging charges made against Harrison in the suits against him, he should select only that charging him with taking goods that did not belong to him and accepting a bribe from Sullivan to base his suits on. Sullivan, on the other hand, alleges in his suit only the charge of his using corrupt means to get a suit contract.

Prisoners Disappearing.

Commissioner Randall reports that the prejudice of editors of art papers, clearly perceptible at the time of the appointment of the Commissioners of the soldiers' monument, under the belief that politics would control the action of the latter, has entirely disappeared, and so far the action of the Commissioners have met their approval, and they express the belief that the monument will be the handsomest one in existence.

OLD BUT GOOD.

"April showers
Make May flowers."

Mankind has been learning of nature ever since the beginning. So, patterning after the flowers, man about this time begins to bloom also. We aid the process. Spring Hats—the top of the bud—we have in every variety. Of Spring Clothes we can say the same, but it must be added that this year the clothes have an elegance of finish that is remarkable. There is no pause. It is in everything improvement or decay. In the making of clothes the improvement is decided, and our spring stock marks it in a way that will be a revelation to those who think that for real nice goods they must go to a merchant tailor.

ANOTHER LESSON

Taught by the Spring rains—the April showers. The wise man provides himself with an Umbrella. And here we likewise come out strong. We have every grade and style of this useful object from the lowest to the highest price. We are sure to suit any demand by women or men. Consult our Umbrella Department.
